PEONY NOTES

Some of the outstanding peonies seen this year deserve mention. Two new ones from Dr. H. C. Cooper of Portland, Oregon, won honors at two major peony shows. Both are late flowering, tall and of the best form. Doris Cooper (No. 35) light salmon pink, and Pink o' Dawn (No. 103) blush, deeper in the center are the ones. They will not be available for several years.

Victory attracted attention everywhere. It blooms well on small plants. Seen in its home garden in all its glory, Mattie Lafuze, tall, stately and exquisitely colored was a sight long to be remembered. Tuckdawa, a rather flat blush white, seems destined to be numbered among the good ones. We hear a great deal of red Le Cygnes. Probably the one that comes nearest to having its perfect symmetry of form is Red Cloud. Price $15.00. Ask for prices on Tuckdawa. Ultima was a very late creamy white that was very beautiful and seemed to open well. Price $5.00. Oliver F. Brand was as always one of the greatest pinks of all. It is a pity it seems destined to utter extinction. There are not over ten good plants in existence now. Nancy Nora in light pink and splendid form was extra good. For an immaculate white of the best form Mary E. Nicholls could not be excelled.

Mrs. Harry F. Little showed its usual beautiful form. Nick Shaylor was good everywhere. Dolorodell and Dorothy J. upheld their reputations as two of the finest we have. King Midas again proved to be an outstanding red. Louise Lossing after a long wait showed up magnificently in Northern gardens. Marilla Beauty was runner-up for the Best Flower in The Show. Moonglow is one of the most beautifully tinted of all. Mildred May is certainly one of the daintiest we have. White Rose and Ernest F. Kelsey are two good whites showing stamens that are very beautiful.

Moonstone proved one of the nicest flowers seen. Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt was probably as fine as any. The outstanding Japs were Gold Standard white, Dignity red, Sagamore blush, and Westerner pink. In singles Pico is the best white. A new soft pink, Pink Dawn is exceptionally fine.
